

Turkey is a peninsula. It is a bridge between Asia and Europe. Turkey has many historical and natural attractions.

Turkey's area is 814. 578 kilometres squares and it's population is about 84 million. It has got 81 cities. The capital city is Ankara. The other most important cities are İstanbul, İzmir, Trabzon, Antalya, Adana, Bursa and Aydın.

There are 7 geographical regions in Turkey. Marmara Region, Black Sea Region, Aegean Region, Central Anatolia Region, Mediterranean Region, Southeast Anatolia Region.

Aydın is a city of Turkey and the 20th most crowded city of the country. It's located in the Aegean region of Turkey and one of the most developed countries regarding tourism and agriculture. It has a border with İzmir in the east. Muğla in the South and the Aegean sea in the West. Its population is 1.110.972 due to the reports of 2019. It has 17 provinces. There are lots of dams so it's a city blessed with water sources. Its old names are Trallais and Güzelhisar.

It has welcomed different civilizations. Cities like Aphrodisias, Milet, Didyma, Nysa, Priene and Magnesia were among the pioneering antique cities at the time.

Aydın of today developed during the Hittites time in 2500 BC and lived its strongest time with the Lydians in 8th century. It became a Turkish city during the Seljuk era.

It has got many touristic attractions. About two million tourists come to Turkey every year.

Turkish people are friendly. Turkish food is wonderful. Turkish food is delicious. Special food for Turkey is; kebab, ayran, Turkish coffee and baklava